

P1.12 Computer technologies in united information space for sex education of children and teenagers

N.Datsun, L.Matitsina

Donetsk State Regional Center for Motherhood and Childhood Guarding
3, Panfilov av. Donetsk 340114 Ukraine

Objective: To, create the united information space for sex education of children and teenagers. Study design: On the basis of level of sex education of teenagers in Donetsk region (questionnaires and analysis of a theme of questions, given on "Telephone of trust " for teenagers) necessity of creation of the united information space is revealed. Method: Within the framework of the united information space (social service for the youth; the means mass-media as a background) are used computer technologies for a individualization of process of sex education. Computer educating programs on following themes are developed: "Recognize yourself" (about a life period of 10-14 year - for children), "STD's" and "AIDS" (about sexually transmitted diseases – for teenagers); "Healthy way of life" (about a factors of risk, resulting in sterility: alcohol, tobacco, drags) and "Principles of rational nutrition of children and teenagers" (about preparation in coming family life – for teenagers). Results: New information computer technologies are used of the united information space for sex education of children and teenagers.